Dirk Wales' prose is filled with rhythm and ease of description, telling the tale of a lost dog who befriended Jack during the Gold Rush in 1897. Barry Moser's stark, black and white illustrations are lush with detail and expression. A grand friendship and adventure!

Many of Jack London's stories involve memorable dogs. 'Call Of The Wild' of course is his breakout classic. IT features 'Buck' a dog modeled on Jack London's dog 'Jack'. Jack lived with London for a short time during the Yukon gold rush of 1897. This is a wonderful fiction story of what became of Jack after London left him behind. A story of adventure, courage, and friendships between men, dogs, wolves, and a girl. A story that shall involve the interest of both boy's and girl's. Barry Moser's illustrations are relief engravings. Adding a stark cold feeling to the story.

Lovely book! A story that is powerful and delicate, original etchings that are masterful. I enjoyed reading it and shared it with my teenager, and now he is eager to read all of Jack London's works. Dirk Wales has given my family lasting pleasure. Lois Rose Rose, Los Angeles, CA.
